MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. Gilliam preached at the Christian church Saturday night and Sunday.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held at Bruen's Chapel Sunday.

The Hustonville & Green River Valley Telephone Co. have lately put in new instruments.

The ladies' prayer meeting and Epworth League met at the Baptist and M. E. churches, respectively, Sunday evening. Both organizations are a power for good and are prospering.

John Tinsley, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives here. Mimm Wilson is visiting relatives in Russell county. Most of the boys working down in Wayne came home to vote.

Mrs. Sarah Ellen Hamilton, a highly respected lady of the Mt. Olive section, died Sunday after a lingering illness. Deceased had been a devoted member of the Christian church since early childhood. Interment took place Monday after a beautiful funeral discourse by her pastor, Rev. Gilliam.

Miss Louise Humphrey and Mr. S. C. Stevens, of Lexington, were married at the Willard Hotel in Louisville Thursday, 7th, Prof. Bartholomew officiating. The bride belongs to one of the best known and most cultured families throughout this section and is a daughter of the late David Humphrey, who was one of the leading farmers and business men of this county. The groom, Mr. Stevens, formerly of Beaver Dam, but now of Lexington, is business manager of the Southern School Journal of Lexington, one of the leading educational journals of the South and is well and favorably known throughout this State. A bridal tour of the West will be made, during which Wichita, Kansas, will be visited. Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Humphrey accompanied the prospective couple to Louisville. Here's hoping the couple a long life of happiness and prosperity as a result of their venture on the often turbulent sea of matrimony.

The election just passed was one of the quietest ever held in Middleburg. Only two or three drunken men were seen in town during the day. The result of the election was not at all surprising and in the whole is most gratifying to the democrats. The supposition that the democrats were backing Tarter, the independent republican candidate for county attorney, injured Jones' candidacy for judge. Mr. Jones made a clean and honest fight and is as strong in defeat as he could have possibly been in victory. Mr. Taylor's majority over Tarter is over 500. More democrats voted for Taylor than republicans supported Tarter. Cochran's majority over Harris is 318. T. S. Benson and H. C. McWhorter, democratic nominees for justice of the peace and constable respectively, won by good majorities. Middleburg precinct gave handsome democratic majorities all around. With the election of Harris a magistrate and constable, a democratic State Legislature which means a democratic successor to Debow in the U. S. Senate, the democrats have good reasons to be proud and they are not backward in showing it. The writer only lost out on one man in his first vote.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, Va. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, druggists.

A woman wouldn't be satisfied without having an unnatural bump on her somewhere. For a time the bump sufficed, says an exchange. The big sleeves with an unnatural bump on the shoulders came next, but did not last long. The bump then moved from the shoulder to the cuff. Just now the fad is to wear a shirt waist that looks as if a peck of apples might have been dumped into it in front.

A Hustonville friend hands us the following parody on Mary and her lamb:

Mary had a little calf—
It was so very lean,
That everywhere that Mary went,
It hardly could be seen.
But Mary got a pair of pads,
Which she put within her hose,
And now the calf is plainly seen,
Wherever Mary goes.

Out this out and take it to Craig & Hoeker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

CAMPAIGN CHAIRMAN J. S. OWSLEY, JR.

Who, with his assistants, Judge W. M. Myers, of Hustonville, and Mr. W. E. Perkins, of Crab Orchard, did excellent work for a splendid cause Tuesday.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Central University's second team defeated the Lancaster 11 by the score of 6 to 0.

The members of the W. C. T. U. of Perryville have established a public library. The use of the books costs only $1 a year.

W. B. Cochran, who was defeated Tuesday for State Senator, was badly bruised in a runaway in Casey. The buggy was completely demolished.

Gen. Dan Collier, former adjutant general of the State, and former surveyor of the port at Louisville, was defeated for councilman at Lancaster.

Mrs. P. B. King and mother, Mrs. Nancy Husley, were given five years in the penitentiary by the Pulaski circuit court for the murder of Mrs. Emy Sellers.

Frank Miller, a Lexington boy, who was attempting to heat his way to Chattanooga on a Cincinnati Southern railroad freight train, was fatally injured at High Bridge.

The case of Harry Bishop for killing James Davis at Somerset was called in the circuit court there yesterday. Bishop killed Davis when he found him at his, Bishop's home talking to his wife.

Geo. Hocker, Sam Burke, Boyle Ellis, Robert Moberly and A. Trible were elected trustees of Junction City. D. W. C. Armstrong was elected police judge and Sam Daves marshal, the latter defeating W. W. Penn.

A car load of lumber to be used in building derricks for the Reynolds Oil Company has arrived at Junction City. The first well will be drilled on the lot owned by the Christian Lumber Company. The machinery has also arrived. The Boyle County Business Men's Association was organized at Danville with James Kinnaid, president, and John B. Stout, secretary. Messrs. C. N. Smith, C. P. Cecil and Alex. Hirsch were appointed a committee to draw up by-laws.

Jephthah Johnson, who was recently sentenced during the Jessamine term of court to a life term in the penitentiary, escaped from jail. He slipped from his cell and hid in the corridor while another prisoner was being removed. Later he rushed past the guard, who was serving the supper, and escaped. Bloodhounds have been put on his trail.

A Card from A Defeated Candidate.

Permit me to state through the columns of the INTERIOR JOURNAL that on the 24th day of June I received the democratic nomination for the office of county judge of Casey and have made an active canvass and went down in defeat. I want to again express thanks to the convention for the honor and also to the people who were so kind and patient with me while I presented my claims to them, and to my friends, both democrats and republicans, who worked so earnestly and faithfully for my election. I will always kindly remember them for the interest they showed. It is said that "defeat is hard to explain," but I will say that in my case two things are forcibly impressed on my mind, namely:

1st. The convention nominated the wrong man. That is their fault.

2d. I failed to get enough votes to elect me. That is my fault.

I humbly bow to the will of the people. M. W. JONES.
Middleburg, Nov. 7, 1901.

A VIOLENT ATTACK OF CROUP CURED.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian evangelist, of Willey, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Craig & Hoeker, Druggists.

The Interior Journal.

When'er I wish to get the news,
Of all that's going on,
The I. J. is the one I choose
To give it good and strong.

I've tried the dailies of the state,
And given them all a test;
But this semi-weekly I shall take,
It proves to be the best.

The editor is a democrat true,
From head to foot outright,
And never fails to vote straight thro'
No matter what's the light.

This is an item I would give,
As being a reason good
For reading this and trying to live,
Democracy as we should.

He puts his soul into his work,
And labors night and day,
He seeks no means by which to shirk,
But works without delay.

For justice, too, he takes his stand,
No prejudice displays,
But give to each throughout the land,
Their rights in all their ways.

He ever gives a hearty shake
To every man he meets,
If any man his friend can make,
This too's the man he seeks.

The faces, too, he gives each week,
Of some most prominent men,
And this you know means no defeat,
But victory in the end.

Last week he gave the handsome face
Of one who lives in town,
And in his journal gave a place,
To write a sketch profound.

'Tis true he gave the picture fair,
And a body not so stout;
But sure we see resemblance there,
That's fine beyond a doubt.

Now who would fail to thus allow
The publication rate?
For then you win a handsome brow,
And hair upon your pate!

"A friend in need is a friend indeed,"
And if you want one true,
Subscribe at once and you shall have
The truest friend to you.

The above was written just after the picture of a well-known West End gentleman appeared in this paper. The writer is a pretty Casey county school teacher, who was raised near Hustonville.

NEWS NOTES.

The "wets" won in Winchester. The "drys" won at Fordville, Ohio county, by six votes.

Miss Helen Gould has presented a library of 500 volumes to the Horse Cave graded school.

Firemen risked contagion and rescued smallpox patients from a burning hospital at Des Moines, Ia.

The Knoodler block of buildings at Augusta, this State, burned to the ground. Loss, $25,000.

George Washington at his death was regarded the richest man in the world. He had property estimated at $500,000.

Thomas Meaux, of Harrodsburg, was struck on the head by Tom Augustus in a fight, and died later from the effects. Augustus is in jail.

Charles D. Thompson, supreme fi-dance keeper of the Supreme Tent,
Knights of Maccabees, has confessed that his accounts are short $57,000.

Peter Matakzo, of Cleveland, a Notre Dame student, in a fight over an injury sustained by a friend with whom he had been wrestling, shot himself through the head and died instantly.

E. S. Wilson, of New London, O., while riding his bicycle, overtook a man who said he was ill. Wilson assisted him on his wheel and started to town. When he got there he was shocked to find the man dead.

The supreme court of Georgia decided that a confidential talk between husband and wife overheard by a third party may be used as evidence against one charged with a crime. The point was brought up by the trial of Knight, charged with murder, in which a confession to his wife is thus introduced.

The following dispatch from Lancaster appeared in the Louisville Commercial: A bold attempt was made early this morning by unknown parties to force their way into the county clerk's office. Their purpose was thwarted by John Duncan, the clerk, who was inside and informed them they would be shot if they entered. Their intention was, it is said, to steal the ballot boxes.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Preaching at Mt. Xenia next Sunday at 3 P. M.

Mr. J. C. McKee, of London, made an interesting talk on the "Second Coming of Christ" at the Preachers-ville church Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Hagin's subject Sunday morning is, "In Christ." 1, Where is It? 2, How Get There? 3, What
Found There? 4, How Stay There?
Evening, "Warning by Satan's Fires."

The largest pumpkin ever raised in Bell county was by D. B. Logan. It weighs 98 pounds, and is 71 inches in circumference.

THOMAS C. BALL

Mr. Ball is a recent addition to democratic ranks and is the gentleman who received a most insulting anonymous letter a few days ago because he had deserted the g. o. p. The letter stated that Mr. Ball would be driven out of town and then off of the earth, but up to the present he has not been molested. Mr. Ball is a big real estate owner, conducts a grocery on Depot street and is a straight forward business man. For years he has made it a practice to spend his Sundays with his aged mother and every Sabbath morning he can be seen walking out to her home, some five or six miles in the country. His devotion to his mother is one of his many good traits and should cover up his faults, if he has any.

From an Old Lincoln County Man.

In remitting for his paper to Jan. 1, 1904, Mr. J. H. Watts, of Harriman, Tenn., writes as follows:

Perhaps some of my old friends would like to know something about the boom town of Harriman. We have been living here almost 10 years; were here in boom and panic days, but of late the town is all business. Everything in real estate has advanced from 100 to 300 per cent.

Harriman as you know is now about 11 years old (quite young yet) and has a bright future. Her manufacturing outlook is good. At present there are several factories in operation, which I will name and give you as near as possible the number of hands employed and output: 150-ton rolling mill running full time; agricultural implement plant, 125 men; hoe and tool plant, 2,400 finished hoes with handles and other tools, forks, &c, 100 men; cotton mill, 5,000 spindles, 75 men; tannery, consuming 50 cords of tan bark and turning out 400 finished hides every day, 125 men; two machine shops and foundries, 40 men; tack factory, 25 men; hub and spoke factory, 25 men; mantle factory which turns out high grade mantles and ships to all parts of the world; two planing mills; 100-hbl. flour mill; 20 ton ice plant; four whole-sale houses; two banks, with $50,000 each and $100,000 on deposit; two graded and one private school; one university with about 250 students; thirteen churches representing all denominations, and last but not least the city owns a water and light plant which cost $110,000 and furnishes all the pure Adam's ale the factories and residents use—which, by the way, is the strongest thing we have to drink in this good prohibition town, and I wish there were many more such.

If any of my old Lincoln county friends come south, by all means stop at happy Harriman—the late string is out. They can come or depart in any direction, as four railroads enter the town. Harriman is situated at the foot of Waldron's ridge on Emory river and is built on Colonel Byrd's farm. He died several years ago, but his wife still lives. They became very wealthy through selling town lots. Yours,

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

W. P. WALTON.

Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 24 District, subject to the will of the democracy.

THE Louisville Times gives some reasons for the democratic landslide of Tuesday, as follows: "Teddy's con lunch contributed to the result, as did Durbin's disregard of the plain 'shall' of the federal constitution and the 'should' of the unwritten law of common courtesy that prevails in the dealings of gentlemen with gentlemen. But at bottom, in the middle and on top the result of yesterday's election in Kentucky is expressive of popular disgust over the manner and matter of republican misuse of opportunity in the State. Deboe for senator, Taylor for governor, Powers for secretary of state, Sapp for collector, and assassination as a means of deciding a legally contested election! No wonder the public spewed out of its mouth a political party that bore such fruit."

THIS is what Gov. McCreary says about the result: "All the counties in this part of the state have given old-time democratic majorities, and Madison county has given over 500 majority, the largest majority ever given for the democrats. Five counties in the Eighth Congressional district have been redeemed, and all the counties of this district except Rockcastle are democratic by good majorities. Kentucky has given the old democratic majority of from thirty to forty thousand. Harmony and union, law and order, are triumphant, and the people have shown that they have determined to have perpetual democratic rule in Kentucky."

THE result of Tuesday's election all over Kentucky is most gratifying to democrats. The State has been thoroughly redeemed, our Legislature and Senate both have good working democratic majorities, while democratic officers are elected in three-fourths of the counties in the State. With all this, is there any reason why democrats should not be happy? Surely not and if a fellow wants to celebrate a little over the success, he should not be condemned so long as he keeps within the bounds of reason.

We extend our hand of sympathy to our good friend and frequent contributor, Mr. M. Dawson Hughes, of Lancaster, who was defeated for police judge. Seems to us the good people of the hamlet of Lancaster have made a mistake in turning down so good a man and we'll wager they'll regret it before the year is out.

RICHARD CROKER denies that he will retire from the leadership of Tammany Hall and says he has no intention of going to Europe yet awhile. It is not improbable, however, that Tammany will retire Croker, who virtually lives in England and tries to run politics in America.

It does our very soul good to see the Danville Advocate with a rooster in it. It carries us back to days when that paper did valiant service for the good cause of democracy. Keep the rooster handy, Brer Woolfolk, and let him crow whenever he wants to.

PRESIDENT HARRY MCCARTY, of the Kentucky Press Association, did the right thing when he put Louis Landrum, editor of the Central Record, on the executive committee. Louis is good enough to put anywhere.

LI HUNG CHANG, China's foremost statesman, is dead. Those who met the illustrious "pigtail" when he was in the U. S. several years ago, still remember his first question, "How much money you got?"

TUESDAY was a cold day for turncoats. They were defeated wherever they ran. The republicans will not give their best offices to their new converts again soon, we opine.

POLITICAL.

Nebraska and Ohio each gave increased republican majorities.

Of all the 100 legislators elected not one is a Brownie or a populist, and but one is an Independent.

Virginia's democratic majority is 25,000 and her Legislature is overwhelmingly democratic.

In Harlan county W. R. Bailey, fusion candidate for county judge, was elected over J. B. Hurst, republican.

Mayor-Elect Grainger, of Louisville, is fortunate in receiving large majorities. He received 5,000 in the primary and 7,000 in the final race.

Wayne county went democratic 176. W. R. Cress, formerly of this county, was elected judge over Sam C. Hardin, who went over to the enemy two years ago.

The Johnson county democrat succeeded in electing their candidate for county clerk. He is the first democratic official chosen in that county for 25 years.

Latest returns indicate that Rev. D. S. Edwards, democrat, has defeated John Feland for State Senator from Hopkins and Christian counties by nine votes.

Fayette county republicans threaten to contest.

Sam H. Stone is tipped to succeed Collector Sapp.

Gov. Beckham will, in a few days, reply to the letter of Gov. Durbin.

John H. Waddle was elected police judge of Somerset over C. B. Porch, republican, 179. R. O. Hughes beat W. B. Porch, republican, for chief of police 228.

Corrected returns show that the republicans elected a majority of the council in the Owensboro city election. The majority of Yewell over Pettit for mayor is fifty-five.

In Mill Springs precinct, Wayne county, the ballots and stubs were burned. This precinct went 163 democratic. If thrown out it will elect all the republican candidates.

Maryland went democratic in selecting members of the Legislature and this fact means the return of Arthur Poe Gorman to the United States Senate after six years in retirement.

The oldest voter in the country is Philip Kiefer, who walked to the precinct in Dayton View, O., from his home and cast a ballot for Gov. Nash. He will be 100 years old this week.

All records for off years were broken by the republicans in the Ohio election. In New Jersey the republican plurality is 14,765. In Pennsylvania the anti-Quay faction reduced the republican plurality by 59 per cent., yet lacked exceeding 50,000 votes of overcoming it.

On the face of the returns, the democrats will have sixty-three votes on joint ballot in the Maryland legislature as against fifty-eight for the republicans, which would insure the election of Arthur P. Gorman to the federal senate. But the republicans will be able to organize the house, and it is freely predicted that after doing so they will unseat enough democrats to give them a majority on joint ballot.

THIS AND THAT.

The sales of public lands in the fiscal year of 1901 aggregated 15,562,796 acres.

White laborers at Madison, Ind., stoned and drove away negro laborers sent across the river from Kentucky to take their places as freight handlers.

Miss Bettie Arnold, daughter of Geo. Arnold of Garrard, and Mr. Willis Arnold, of Mississippi, will be married at the home of the bride's aunt in Jeffers, Tenn.

Loah and Lon Shelton sold to John Tanner 300 shocks of corn at $3 per barrel in the field; also some fat hogs at 54c and some shots at 5c.—Winchester Sun.

The public sessions of the Shelby Court of Inquiry came to an end yesterday when Capt. Lemly, the Judge Advocate, delivered the closing argument for the Government.

A shipment of a new issue of $10 bills, called the new Buffalo bill, was received at the subtreasury Wednesday. Vignettes of Clark and Lewis, western explorers, and a likeness of a buffalo appear on the obverse.

The western cattlemen claim that the contraction of the western public grazing lands will soon reduce the number of cattle to such an extent that beefsteak will be a luxury. They will appeal to Congress to take action.

Kentucky and Tennessee underwriters have elected these officers: H. H. Rush, president; Frank Snyder, vice president; W. C. Nelson, secretary; executive committee, A. H. McAfee, E. W. Bentley, J. L. Smith, J. W. Powell, J. C. Lucas, S. B. Kennedy and C. B. Rogers.

The revival at the Baptist church closed Saturday afternoon with the baptism. During the meeting 67 new members were received into the church, 52 by profession of faith and 15 by letter. Rev. E. F. Wright and Dr. McDonald are to be congratulated on the fine showing.—Shelby News.

Thirty Federal convicts at the Leavenworth, Kan., prison mutilated and twenty-six are at large. In the rush to escape two guards were dangerously wounded, one convict was killed and another wounded, and one guard suffered a broken leg. The convicts were nearly all desperadoes from the Indian Territory.

CRAN ORCHARD.—A large number of telephone poles are being shipped from here for various places. The timely rain this week quenched the forest fires raging out in the Fall Lick and Dripping Springs vicinity. S. P. Gray and family vacated the Dillon property and moved to McKinney. J. C. McWhorter has purchased the place and will take possession as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made with the heirs. Dr. Robert Redd continues quite feeble. Miss Fannie Redd is visiting in Livingston. J. B. Willis spent a few days this week with his many friends in Richmond. Extensive preparations are being made for the fox hunt to be held here the 25th inst. The lovers of such sport anticipate a pleasant occasion.

IN MEMORIAM.

These lines are written in loving memory of Mrs. Sarah F. Evans, who died at her home in Garrard county on the morning of Friday, November 1, 1901, aged 59 years.

On Saturday, after appropriate services by Elder A. R. Moore, at Goshen church in Lincoln county, her remains, followed by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives, were deposited in their last resting place in the cemetery near there. Having early in life obeyed the gospel, hers was a consistent christian life, and we who mourn for her are fully assured that she is now enjoying the rest she so earnestly prayed for.

Though an invalid for long months, she bore her sufferings uncomplainingly, with patience and rare fortitude; longing to be well again, yet submissive at last, she expressed herself as not afraid to die, because of the faith that pointed her to God's promises and the life beyond. Possessed of a sweet disposition, it was her aim to make all around her happy. Were any sick, hers were the eyes that never slept, the hands that never grew tired in ministering to their needs. Her whole life was devoted to those she loved, and it is such a comfort to them now to know that during her long illness she was tended by loving hands and that nothing was left undone that would in the least have relieved her pain. Having no children of her own, yet she was passionately fond of them, and those of her family will never forget "Aunt Sarah" and her life of loving ministrations. Her loss will be felt most by the loving husband, for she was all in all to him; her gentle presence is lost to him here, but "In the clear morning of that other country,

In Paradise, With the same fair face that we have known and cherished, She shall arise!

Let us be patient, we who moan, with weeping, Some vanished face The Lord has taken, but to add more beauty

And a diviner grace. "And we shall find once more beyond earth's sorrows, Beyond these skies, In the fair city of the sure foundations, Those heavenly eyes,

With the same welcome shining thro' their sweetness, That met us here; Eyes from whose beauty God has banished weeping, And wiped away the tear."

Estray Steer.

A 2-year-old black and white spotted steer came to my place Sunday, Oct. 27. The owner can get her by paying for this notice and her keep. J. F. Adams, Sweeney, Ky.

KEEP YOUR TEETH.

It's quite easy to keep them, and to keep them sound and white. But to do so requires a little daily care. Thorough brushing with a good brush and a little dentifrice will prevent decay—a clean tooth will not decay in a hundred years.

..Right Tooth Brushes..

A tooth brush is a little thing, but it pays to use a good one and it is well to buy them at the right price. We have a splendid stock of the best sorts of tooth brushes; genuine tooth savers, and we make close prices on them. Also carry a line of the best dentifrices, pastes, powders & liquids.

M., fifteen hundred and one, Morehead, Ky."

LOCALS.

WINTER Lap robes at J. C. McClary's.

BIG lot of outtings just in, 5 to 10c. Severance & Sons.

LARGE assortment of presents at Embry & Engleman's.

STILL talking it. Underwear, large or small. Severance & Sons.

LOST, pocket-book, containing $5 or $6. Reward. Leave at this office.

F. M. WARE, the McKinney merchant, wants your eggs at 20c per dozen.

MEAT cutters, sausage stuffers, butcher knives, sage and pepper. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

If you want your farm posted drop in and leave a quarter. It might save you a good deal of trouble.

MEN and boys, try our seamless shoes if you want service. Severance & Sons.

THE democratic majority is over 200 in every race. In our Tuesday's issue we will give the official count.

WE have plenty of all kinds of feed such as hay, corn, oats and shipstuf. Cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co.

DROP in when you come to Court Monday and tell us some news. If you have a little spare change you might bring that along with you.

THE celebration of the victory of Tuesday last to have been held by the democrats of Casey, Buyle, Garrard and Lincoln here Tuesday night next, has been called off.

HAVING bought out William Hamilton's stock of jewelry, I will continue the business at his old stand. Watch repairing a specialty. I solicit a share of your patronage. W. H. Mueller.*

THE Daughters of the Confederacy will serve dinner on county court day at 20 cents. Tables will be set in the rooms under the law office of J. W. Alcorn. All are asked to patronize the same.

THE young ladies were quite pleased with the success of the Ralph Bingham entertainment, both from a financial point of view and the general appreciation and pleasure as expressed by the audience.

FEW democrats, if any, worked harder for the success of the ticket or are deserving of more praise than Mr. W. S. Burch, the young attorney. Democrats will not forget this gentleman if he ever offers for office. They should not, at any rate.

FRIENDS of Gen. W. H. Gentry, of Lexington, have presented him with an English hunting suit, which he says he will wear at the opening of the National Beagle Hound Association at Crab Orchard Springs on Nov. 25, where there will be a three-days' meeting of the club.

GROWING—Commander G. L. Penny tells us that the Maccabees have initiated 31 candidates in the last three meeting nights and have six more for next meeting night. They have 100 members now, just one less than the Odd Fellows, who have the largest membership in town.

WHOPPERS.—Mr. Luther Underwood, of the Hubble section, brought us four turkeys yesterday that weighed 19 pounds, which beat those by several pounds sent us by John Latham. We will give a three months' subscription to this paper to the person who brings us four turkeys larger than those mentioned above.

54TH.—That splendid old democrat, Mr. George L. Carter, of the West End, voted for his 54th time Tuesday. He was in to see us yesterday and told us that the present victory pleased him more than any in years. The old gentleman has a remarkable health record, not having missed a meal on account of illness for over 23 years.

VANARSDALE.—Mr. C. C. VanArsdale, who ran the Hustonville Roller Mills for years and made this county a most excellent citizen, died at his home in Harrodsburg Monday, aged 69 years. He had been in failing health for several years, but two days before his death was able to go about the place. He leaves a wife and four children. Funeral services were held at the house at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by Dr. J. G. Hunter and the interment took place in Spring Hill Cemetery.

ANOTHER good family will move to Danville. Mr. O. P. Huffman has sold his meat business here to Booker Wilkinson, of Liberty, an experienced butcher, and has bought of Fux & McDowell, of Danville, the Shears butcher shop. He will give possession Nov. 18 and take charge of the Danville shop Dec. 1. We are glad to gain Mr. Wilkinson, who is a brother to Mr. Ed Wilkinson, but are mighty sorry to lose Mr. Huffman and his good family.

FRANK CHANDLER, who is serving on the jury at this term of court, is doing so for his first time, although he is 55 years old. In fact he has never been in Stanford while court was in session but four times before, notwithstanding he lives within eight miles of the court-house. He has never sued a man and has never been sued; has lived all of his life in the East End, where he resides now, and was never in a printing office until yesterday. He has been reading this paper for a quarter of a century, however.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. William Hamilton, who has done well in the jewelry business here, has sold out lock, stock and barrel to Mr. W. H. Mueller (pronounced Miller) of Peoria, Ill., and has given possession. Mr. Hamilton has made a good citizen during his stay of several years here and has made many friends who dislike to see him and his wife leave. They will return to Canada in about two weeks. Mr. Mueller is an experienced jeweler, having spent 30 years of his life at the bench, 14 years of which he had charge of a big watch repairing store in Peoria. If he does as well as his predecessor, and he should do so, it won't take him long to become a rich man.

EVERYTHING in rubbers at Severance & Sons'.

New broadcloths and venetians. Severance & Sons.

Cummins & McClary will give away the fine $50 dinner set now in their window. One ticket with each $1.00 cash purchase.

As this paper is being printed the official count of the ballots is being made by the election commissioners, Messrs. J. F. Higney, J. M. Alverson and Sheriff S. M. Owens.

I WILL leave Stanford in about 10 days. Please call and get your watch or jewelry left with me to be repaired. Also kindly call and settle your account. William Hamilton.

THE certificates of stock in the Beaver Creek Oil Co., Geo. D. Weatherford, president, and J. C. Barker, treasurer, are as pretty as new $100 bills. The company has a capital stock of $10,000 and the prospects for striking oil on its leases in Wayne county grow brighter daily.

HON. M. ABELE, who has made a number of speeches in this county for the cause of democracy, was elected assessor of Kenton county. Ex-Mayor Rhinock, whose mother once lived in Lincoln, was defeated for State Senator in the same county. Mr. Rhinock was a warm supporter of Gov. McCreary.

A FAMILY AFFAIR.—We looked in on the court at Somerset the other day and found it decidedly a family affair. Good old Judge Morrow was presiding, with his son, Maj. Sam, sitting by his side, and in the case on hand his son, W. A., was on one side and his sons, Thomas and Edward, on the other. It is, therefore, easy to see that the family, which is a very gifted one, was bound to catch 'em a conin' or a 'twine, no matter how the head of it decided.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

SUPT. SINGLETON is in receipt of the following letter: The State treasurer informs me that he will be unable to pay the school fund due the teachers on Nov. 9. This results from the fact that the State board of equalization was very late in completing its work this year, thereby causing the sheriffs to be delayed in securing their tax books, and consequently behind in the collection of taxes. The treasurer hopes to be able to pay another 20 per cent. within 10 days or two weeks. H. V. McChesney.

MR. JAMES K. ASHLEY, who was born in Casey, but who has resided at Rushville, Ill., for the last 30-odd years, has located at McKinney, where he is manufacturing the Champion Egg Case and Box Machine. The Rushville Times speaks of Mr. Ashley in glowing terms and says that he made that town a most excellent and valuable citizen. The paper's mention of him winds up as follows: "The people of McKinney will find Mr. Ashley a pleasant gentleman to do business with and always on the square."

CIRCUIT COURT resumed operations Wednesday morning and considerable business of minor importance has been disposed of. Buena Vista Compton was sentenced to 44 years in the Houses of Reform. He was charged with breaking into the depot at Moreland. Compton is only 16 years old. John Payor, charged with cutting David Street at Crab Orchard, was acquitted. Arthur Harris caught a $25 fine and 10 days' imprisonment for carrying concealed weapons. Steve Teater was fined $50 and costs for shooting at Put Geer. John Anderson was given six years in the penitentiary for housebreaking. The case of Alfred Bright, for killing Sam Blakemore, also colored, was set for the 14th day of the term.

George Miller, a Negro, was given three years in the penitentiary this morning for stealing hogs from Mr. S. T. Harris. The juries are discharged until Monday.

A demurrer was overruled in the case of Morris Fred against W. H. Traylor and the case was set for Nov. 18. Mr. Fred, it will be remembered, has brought suit against Mr. Traylor for $10,000 damages.

RALPH BINGHAM, the noted monologue entertainer, was with us Wednesday evening. It is said that it takes "a good all around fellow" to make a show by himself. Ralph Bingham fills the bill. His rendition of "Crossing London Bridge" gave an excellent idea of his superior powers as a vocalist. We would have been willing to spend the whole night with Ralph's violin, provided he "stayed with it." Almost anybody would be satisfied to be "the one tune man" he made Mr. Johnson. Having hailed from the Old Dominion himself, we recognized at once the true old Virginia Negro dialect. A feeling of homesickness crept over us for a sight of the old "black mammas" he depicted in "Sister Brown and Sister Jones." His graphic powers of telling humorous stories is simply inimitable. An unusual feature of his entertainment is that he seems as thoroughly amused as is his audience. Many thanks are due the young ladies' missionary society of the Presbyterian church for affording us the rare pleasure of one whole evening of pure, clean and wholesome amusement. We hope Ralph Bingham will come this way again.

OUR Pilgrim Coffee at 15c is as good as others sell at 20c. Try it. John Bright, Jr., & Co.

HENRY ANDERSON'S team ran off near Goshen yesterday, breaking up his wagon and ruining his harness.

I HAVE a good family horse and buggy, which I will dispose of at low figures, as I am going away. Rev. J. B. Crouch.

As the polls closed at Highland Tuesday afternoon a rooster came up as close to the house where the voting was done as he could and crowed half a dozen times. The republicans can now see what he was crowing for.

MORE TURNIPS.—"Squire" James A. Luddarar brought us in some mighty big turnips this morning but they don't come up to those raised by Mr. Luther Underwood. One of them measured 19 inches in circumference, however.

MAJORITY.—Geo. T. Farris' majority in this county is 235, M. F. North 249, James P. Bailey 250, Geo. B. Cooper 2,022, Harvey Helm 1,993, M. S. Baughman 218, W. I. Herrin 360, M. G. Reynolds 267, Garland Singletoe 1,996, W. H. Perkins 1,950, Wm. Skidmore 1,962. James Carson, of Crab Orchard, got one vote for county clerk, Dr. Steele Bailey one for judge, S. J. Embry, Sr., one for sheriff, John P. Jones one for jailer, Mark Hardin one for assessor, and Sam Guest, colored, one for county attorney. It will be readily seen that Mr. Herrin heads the ticket.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

W. H. Underwood bought of Mrs. A. P. Pendleton two fine calves for $35.

M. J. Farris, of Danville, bought of J. M. Alverson a bay gelding for $125.

Bruce & Bright purchased from Geo. Simpson and others 500 barrels of corn at $3 delivered.—News.

John Buster, of Fauconer, sold a young roadster to Mr. Beard, of Marion, for $350.—Advocate.

I will sell at auction a good family buggy horse at Stanford next Monday.

JOS. HALLCO.

The Winchester Sun says: Joe L. Brown is cutting a crop of 75 acres of hemp on ground from which he harvested a good crop of wheat a few months ago.

Little Boy, now holding the world's pacing record to a wagon, was purchased by Steve Traube, of Bourbon county, from his owner, living in Owen county, for $125 and sold for $350.

There were 250 cattle on the Paris market Monday. Rider, of Palmouth, sold 19 800-pound cattle at 34c; Hibler Bros. sold 29 1,100-pound cattle to C. Alexander, Jr., at 4 cents; B. F. Ledford sold 28 800-pound cattle at 3.65; R. T. Ford sold 17 1,000-pound cattle at $44; 35 cows and calves sold at $30 to $45.

Terry & Wilson bought of W. E. Bradshaw a three-year-old gelding for $125; of Coffey Bros. a bay gelding for $150; Jas. T. Page a bay gelding for $75. Coffey Bros. sold to Wm. Riall a harness horse for $60. F. B. Wagoner sold to R. T. Tandy 13 head 900 pound cattle at 3c. G. W. Flowers & Sons sold to Hudson & Page 16 head of 1100 pound cattle at $3.75. Hayden & Hardisty, of Lebanon, bought from W. B. Howe 35 head of cattle, 1100 pounds at $3.40, from Smith & Nell 30 head 1,000 pound cattle at $3.30, also from same parties four mules at $100 each.—Adair News.

The Greek minister in Constantinople is said to have advised his government that Turkey has accepted all the terms of France.

Maj. Foxhall A. Deingerfeld bought of G. W. Moore, of Lexington, the bay mare Imp. Duchess Caroline, for $3,000. She produced a Wrangling Duchess, Scratchoon and Dick Furber.

TURKEYS WANTED

Will be open for buying good Turkeys on Monday, Nov. 11, and for the first market buy until the 19th. Will pay 5c per pound. All wishing to sell on the first market will please get them in. J. K. CHRISTIAN, Stanford, Ky.

Steer Lost.

A pale red steer, 1½ years old or a short 2-year-old, weighing about 650 pounds, long neck and bull looking head, left Saturday, Nov. 2nd. I bought him at the Goodnight sale. Information leading to his recovery thankfully received. W. E. Amon, Rowland.
